

Free Visit to RSC, Guwahati for Underprivileged Children

As directed by Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India, Regional Science Centre, Guwahati has taken a special drive to provide free visit for underprivileged Children of North-East region to Regional Science Centre, Guwahati. Various Science demonstrations are arranged to encourage them to learn science through hands-on-activities. Science Centre also providing them free transports for their to & fro journey, free refreshment and also scientific gift item to all underprivileged Children. This programme is designed to uplift underprivileged Children with scientific awareness and scientific thoughts.